	Friday	7-8 PM	April 4,11,18,25	4

Parking

Park in the front parking lot facing the barn going as far north as needed along the fence without blocking the drive thru circle.

Safety

For your own safety, please do not go into the barn without an instructor.

If you bring other children that are not riding you must supervise them at all times. Do not allow them anywhere near the barn or riding area, and no running or throwing stones as they could spook a horse. Benches and picnic tables are provided for seating while you wait. The playground and swing areas are for Birthday party participants only.

Where to go: Follow the sign to the south side of the barn and read "Equine Inherent Risk Law" while you wait for the instructor.

What to wear and bring:

Helmets are provided and must be worn by all riding participants.

Please print and sign our liability waiver and bring it with you on the first day of class.

All riders and adults that will be leading a horse for their child should wear long pants and sturdy shoes or boots.

Bring a carrot or sliced apple treat for your horse. Please wait for instructions on who to feed and when.

Please no dogs unless they are service animals.

If you have any questions or concerns please call 585-392-5576
